"We are fortunate to have merited this, to be witnessing the word of Hashem being realized in our time. This is the way the Geula unfolds, a little at a time, and one must recognize and see the hand of Divine Providence in it. The world has a Master. The Creator of the Universe hasn't abandoned us, and in the End of Days, our return to the Land is promised. This is happening in our midst, through our actions. The end of the Galut comes in this developmental way, bringing the beginnings of Geula (Atchalta D'Geula).

The period of redemption had started, and yet, Rav Tzvi Yehuda said, in contrast to our normal condition, when our nation is here in our Land, we are still, to our shame and disgrace, in a state of exile. We should feel this deep shame, he said, because the majority of our people were still living outside the Land. This is our Galut. To return to health, to truth, to faithfulness to Torah, and to Hashem - all of our people have to be back in our Land.(Kuzari, 2:24) To reveal the Kingdom of Hashem in the world, and to bring redemption to all of mankind, the Jewish people have to be in Israel.

(From Sefer Torat Eretz Yisrael)
