Rabbi David Focht 6446 Stover Ave Cincinnati, Ohio 45237
(513) 351-3788 Kidd Hoyer of Cincinnati.
Kashrus Administrator.

There are no laws governing kosher law provisions in Cincinnati, Ohio
All states in U.S. turn to N.Y. STATE.

Acko has a computer that feeds into it new info to send to all agencies in the country. We seek a former to set up for info. from N.Y. All Shulen and Catering MUST be served by the Kadd - and NOBODY ELSE

Herchel Schechter of Yeshiva University claims butchers sell products and supposedly kosher meat but they don't salt it and wash it. If they don't want to do it - they should at least tell the people to kosher and salt it themselves.

The best one David Haim chairman of Kashrus of Agudas Israel of America. See pamphlet

How do you define what's kosher?

Sh. Rubin complains they have no money to do what they would like to do.

After panel receives all info they will go to the drawing board to determine what should be done.

We seek an amendment to the statutes.

R. Israel Belsky (718) 941-5832. NIKHUR (IMP guy) Torah V'deas affiliated with (O).

He says NIKHUR is more important than slaughtering. The inspectors have no standards that they are provided with to overcome this atrocities.

Scandalous discovery. There must be some (derech) & systematic way that inspectors should have to follow. This is the one and only common denominator to overcome the various variations in NIKHUR.

Very foolish I didn't send Cuomo 4 years ago - Coo-Coo

The panel wants people to speak up

Dubinsky says the kosher food industry now sells about 1700 different kinds of kosher food while about 10 years ago they only sold about 150 different kosher food items.

Suggestions - Gov. Cuomo implant a group of experts in the field for 6 million kosher consumers.

R. Rubin doesn't want didn't say a brochure

Silverman brought kosher out of the closet - he says require a stiff penalty. Seeks TRAINED rabbinical authority who will be accepted under the K.

As the case is now the kosher laws are being flagrantly violated. We deserve the best in kosher law.

We are the largest group - we all have an obligation
